DEATH DEALT TO MANY INNOCENT MEN AT INSTANCE, ACCORDING TO ORCHARD'S TESTIMONY, OF WESTERN FEDERATION OF MINERS, OF WHICH HAYWOOD, WHO IS CHARGED WITH MURDER OF FORMER GOVERNOR STEUBENBERG, OF IDAHO—RECEIVED $800 FOR ONE MURDER—SHOT

Another Man Down in Cold Blood—The Wrecking of the Vincitor Mine.

Bose, Idaho, June 5.—Alfred Orchard, alias Harry Orchard, the mine assassin, Frank Steubenberg, former governor of Idaho, went on the stand today as a witness against William D. Haywood, and testified to a long chain of brutal, revolting crimes committed by himself, for the pay of the leaders of the Western Federation of Miners.

It is understood by counsel for the state that there would be later proof making his testimony legitimate against the way he broke to the whole diabolical business, and throughout the entire day Orchard went from the recital of one crime to another, each seeming more diabolical and horrible than the one preceding it.

Orchard confessed that as a member of the mob which wrecked the Cripple Creek mine at Leadville, in Colorado, he was the one who shot the mine manager, and that he was the one who shot the mine manager, and that he was the one who shot the mine manager.

Orchard's testimony was so graphic and so convincing that the jury was convinced of his guilt. He was sentenced to the gallows.

MOUNTED POLICE

To Take Charge

And Will Maintain Order During

Donkhorst Land Rush at Yorkton.

Yorkton, Sask., June 5.—At a special meeting of the town council yesterday evening, it was decided to authorize the R.N.W.M.P. to maintain order in the town during the rush for lands in the Donkhorst reserve.

During the rush for positions last night the work of the police was mostly increased by remarks made by mobsters and as a consequence information was laid against several and fines imposed. It has been decided to have the line up at 10 o'clock in the morning instead of five o'clock the evening before.

Yielding the long wait for the applicants, and it is probable that only a few will be able to get in at that time in the morning. It is expected that the whole business will be administered by the magistrates today with the aid of the police in handling the crowd and maintaining order.

CASE AGAINST WHITE DISMISSED

Judge Scott Said Complainant Had Not Shown as Good Faith as Accused.

The charge of misappropriation of school funds preferred against Theodor, former secretary-treasurer of Hillside school district, was the first case on the criminal docket when the supreme court sat yesterday afternoon. Mr. Justice Scott presiding. The evidence in the prosecution went to show that there had been discrepancies in the accounts kept by White and on the books of the district being handed over to his successor in the supreme court yesterday afternoon. White thereupon straightened them out and paid over any monies which the books showed as due. The charge was laid some time after the district had received all the monies coming to it. His lordship dismissed the charge, remarking that there was nothing in the evidence to lead him to the conclusion that White had acted improperly or that there had been any intent on his part to defraud the district. "His conduct," his lordship said, "has been perfectly reasonable."

His lordship went on to say that the informant had not shown as good faith as had the accused. E. B. Cogswell acted for the crown and J. K. Macdonald for the defence.

BIRTH.

IRVING—At Edmonton, June 4th, 1930, the wife of I. E. Wentworth Irving, D.S.O., M.D., a son.

Harry Orchard

ner we were told by W. F. Davis to line up. The men, with long guns, came to take the front rank, followed by the men with six shotguns. We were told to try upon the mill as we approached. This we did and the fire was returned by the guards. It soon developed that there were no men there, and we took possession. Powder was placed about the mill, and it was blown up. I lit one fuse. I don't know who lit the others.

Orchard said two men were killed. The name of Governor Steunenberg, he said, was mentioned at the meeting he had described. "Mr. Cochran said he did not believe he would have any opposition from the governor, that he had always supported him and could control him. He said to be careful about interfering with the federal authorities," added the witness.

"The meeting was called to order," continued Orchard, "by the secretary, who said it had been decided that day to go to Warrenton and to blow up the mill at the Sullivan and Bunker Hill mines, and to hang the superintendent."

The court recessed at 11:30 until 1:30 p.m., with Orchard on the stand.

Mr. Adams, of Lloydminster, was brought into the General hospital yesterday. She was attended by a nurse.

STATHCOA NEWS

LAST NIGHT'S BASEBALL.

The third of the intermediate series of baseball matches between Duggan street and Strathcona intermediate city teams, was played last night at Strathcona school grounds. There was the largest attendance of spectators of the season who saw a very interesting and exciting contest. In the seventh inning, which was the concluding one, the city team made a whirlwind finish, and pulled out a win on hand and petitions are being received at every meeting of the city council asking for further sidewalk. Of these four miles about a mile and a half will be laid of grandstand 6.6 lineal feet of which will be fourteen feet wide. In connection with it, the board of Duggan street, 2.6 feet more of six feet wide will be laid.

FOUR MILES OF SIDEWALKS.

Four miles of sidewalks at last will be laid by the city of Strathcona this year. This is City Engineer McLean's estimate of the work now on hand and petitions are being received at every meeting of the city council asking for further sidewalk. Of these four miles about a mile and a half will be laid of grandstand 6.6 lineal feet of which will be fourteen feet wide. In connection with it, the board of Duggan street, 2.6 feet more of six feet wide will be laid.

Of the plank sidewalks there will be 22,000 feet of six foot wide, 600 feet of eight foot wide and 600 feet of four foot wide. When these walks are laid it will give the city a much more finished appearance.

The council is wise in not encouraging four foot sidewalks. There are manifestly a few streets which they will need for requirements for some years to come, but most of the work is right in the streets that are or will be the present growth of the city will be long thoroughfares. On these streets it is the height of wisdom to lay broad and ample walks at the present time—Flamstead.

Four Fires of Incendiary Origin Occur in Allentown Pa.

Allentown, Pa., June 5.—The stock house of Blithner Hunsicker and Co., the heaviest wholesale dry goods dealer in Lehigh valley, was destroyed by fire to-night, entailing a loss of fully $75,000. Two firemen were overcome while fighting the flames. Barely had the firemen returned from the fire when they were summoned to another fire of incendiary origin in the basement of a three-story brick warehouse in the business section occupied by the Prince Furniture Co. While the building was saved, the stock valued at $10,000 was totally ruined.

Before the firemen were finished with their work at the second fire they were called to another business block two blocks away where fire was discovered in Heinrich Behner & Company furniture factory. A fourth alarm was then sounded. The alarm was the result of the fire in the Allentown Foundry and Machine Co., was treated of the extreme western part of the city, in burning. It would seem as if there was an attempt to destroy the city.

From One Day To The Other

A Flag.
 Sir Edward J. Reed.
 A flag: Ah yes, a flag.
 Purchased a faded rag upon a stick.
 Yet what luminous memories
 And the long-remembered flag.
 At view of it how Fame
 At its unfurling grasps her trump
 And shakes
 The drowsy soul to daring life, and makes
 A wonder of a name!

How duty at the sight
 Transforms the city wastrels, country
 clods,
 And bids them fight the fight!

How valor at the sign Lights even in the slothful breast
 a fire.
 That withers every idle, vain desire,
 And makes man "bad divine!"

How honor, "neath its folds, Stands forth, extending palm and leaf
 To mortals made immortal in renom.
 And the wide world beholds!

The Value of Another Shakespeare.
 No man is to be censured for seeking to escape the average after-dinner speaking of Shakespeare. It is not weariness of spirit, with occasional reluctance, that delivers, whether of sense or wit, or both. But the keystone of the difficulty in general was recently struck by Dr. S. Wier Mitchell, the famous physician and still more famous novelist, who attended the national board of trade in Washington. He listened with growing uneasiness to a few of the speakers and then broke away.
 A friend who noted his disappearance told him, fearing the venerable gentleman was ill. He was only ill at ease, and explained: "I grow weary of hearing men talk about millions and billions, and not a word about education or moral progress, or literature or poetry. Why has the nation so unimpaired with commercialism that men can talk of nothing but dollars and cents? Let me tell you, sir, that this country could well afford to pay $1,000,000 for another Shakespeare." There is in Dr. Mitchell's outburst a national diagnosis, and both a test and a sermon.

Clothes Make the Man?
 Is the whole always equal to the sum of all its parts? A German began thought of doubtless:
 "Here I am," he said, as he looked at himself in a pocket mirror; "here
 I am wearing the boots of a bank manager, the trousers of a landed proprietor, a baron's coat and vest, and a count's hat; yet in spite of it all I look like a tramp."—The Bill.

Down in Guatemala they have just sentenced nineteen men to death, but began giving them names.
 If the names were like some we've heard of in Central America, Guatemala should soon money to the newspaper men in not sending them.

The New Spanish Heir.
 For the moment political Spain seems united. Even the Republicans have succumbed to the popularity of the young queen, whose beauty, grace and democratic manner a year ago so delighted her to the people that a crown was bought for her by public subscription, every village in Spain contributing. The birth of a son to the king and queen of Spain is more significant than any other similar event elsewhere would be, because no country has been in greater peril from anti-dynastic attempts. It has been difficult to smother all the plots of the Carlists on the one hand and of the Republicans on the other. Spain seems as little ready for Carlist authority as for republican responsibility.
 Last week's event, therefore, will relieve all those who desire the peace and political solidity of Spain by assuring, humanely speaking, the direct male succession to the throne. The male succession to the throne of the king of Spain, resembles that of the Prince of Wales. Both Wales and the Asturias are principality,
 the names of aboriginal inhabitants who long remained unconquered. The new baby, a great grandson of Queen Victoria of England, will also be a link binding together England and Spain as they have not been for centuries, through a family alliance crowning the friendly understanding brought about by Edward VII. Thus one more guarantee has been added to those by which that wise monarch has added in making the peace of Europe more sure.

Soft Ginger Bread.
 Sift together a pint of flour, a teaspoonful of baking powder and half a teaspoonful of salt. Mix together half a cup each of molasses, cream and sugar. Warm the mixture slightly;
 beat light, and when lukewarm beat in a well-whipped egg, half a teaspoonful of ground mace and a tablespoonful of ginger. Dissolve a scant half-teaspoonful of baking soda

 in a tablespoonful of boiling water, stir this into a pint of sweet milk
 to it is the other half of the recipe.
 The flour, beat hard for a minute and take in well buttered tin.

Spice Cakes.

Mix together one cup molasses, one-half cup of sugar, one-half cup butter, one teaspoon each of cinnamon and cloves, two teaspoons soda in a cup of boiling water and two half cups of sifted flour. The last thing before baking add two beaten eggs. Bake in gem pans. If desired cakes may be roasted by steaming, and serve das pudding with hot sauce.

Reflections.

I know a woman who is continually telling her friends both young and old that she will never be happy because she made the mistake of her life when she was sixteen years old. With long face and dreary eyes she repeatedly says: "Oh that I might again be a child and live the happy years of my youth!" How I wish I were she might take an object lesson from a neighbor of hers who had an ungeneral looking stamp of a dead tree in her yard. She planted nasturtium seed around it, and soon it was transformed into a beautiful pond of green, lily-like flowers. No one would ever think that anything disagreeable was one. Mrs. Macdonald was once told that it was with her mistakes. It is possible to cover them up completely by making them. One solves an atmosphere of good cheer and by leaving the past severely alone. With a determination of iron bury it deep and never dig it up.

SOCIAL.

Mrs. McMahon's tea yesterday afternoon in honor of her sister, Miss Stewart, was a most enjoyable function. The hostess and her sister both wore lovely gowns, of white organdie trimmed with lace.
 The tea table presented a most attractive appearance. On the centre piece of real fern stood a large glass vase of exquisite shaded pink roses. But possibly the most beautiful decoration of the table was the beautiful china. Mrs. Jellet poured tea. Mrs. Jellet made Mrs. Macdonald the coffee, and Miss Alice Fielders served the ice. Mrs. Shil-bert, Mrs. Alton and Mrs. Kinaird assisted in the tea room. There were about forty guests. Among those who were noticed were Mrs.
 Charlesworth, Mrs. Pearce,
 Mrs. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Giesbach,
 Mrs. A. C. Giesbach, Mrs. Jellet,
 Mrs. Macdonald, Mrs. Ewing,
 Mrs. Beck, Mrs. Kenney, Mrs. Mc-Pherson, Mrs. Jones, Mrs. Macdonald, Mrs. Hardisty, Mrs. Young and Mrs. Fisher.

Mrs. Vellequette returned Tuesday night from Montreal.
 Mrs. O'Connor is leaving invitations for a children's party for Friday evening, for her daughter Beatrice.

Mr. Sevel, of Kenosha, and Mrs.
 Pearce, of Winnipeg, who have been eight months in Chicago, left for home today.

Mrs. Duncan, of Winnipeg, is expected next week to visit her daughter, Mrs. Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Smith, Mr.
 and Mrs. Martin and Mrs. Calderon have moved into their tent.

Mrs. Daniel Galtbraith, of Bon-naville, announces the engagement of her granddaughter, Margaret Edith, to Captain Ernest Turkuud Wingate, Queen's Own Rifles of Canada, Toronto, the marriage to take place the last week in June.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Short left last evening for a trip to England, where Mr. Short goes in connection with an appeal in the Lamont church case.

THE MAN WE WANT.

The really important thing in Western Canada is not the price of city real estate, nor the establishment of industries and commercial enterprises, worthy and desirable as these may be; the essential thing is that capable, willing and desirable settlers be placed upon our vacant land. It may be a commonplace to say that the present and the future of the west depends on the cultivation of the soil; but amid the distracting and distracting incidents of a rapidly developing country it is the common-place that is forgotten, and it is the common place that any country can least afford to forget. If disaster should wipe out in a day every city, town and village on the prairies, but should leave the fertility of our soil unimpaired, and the fact of our people in that fertility unshaken, it would be a question only of hours until the builders were busy on the beginnings of larger and more beautiful cities. Financial and commercial depression might cripple our industries and paralyze our commerce, but the damage however severe could be only temporary while our farms continue to produce bumper crops of the grain the world needs. But had nature denied fertility to our soil, the situation would have been the Sahara of America, with neither cities, industries nor commerce. A clear recognition of this absolute dependence on the population of the soil is the viewpoint from which alone the condition of the West can be judged, its problems solved and its possibilities gauged.

This idea of the supremacy of agriculture is the underlying motive of the immigration policy which is bringing settlers by thousands to occupy our vacant lands. Whatever and wherever the West needs, we need the farmer most. Consequently it is to the farmer and to the man best adapted by character and experience to become a farmer that the immigration effort of Canada is directed. "Land without people is a wilderness," declared Mr. James Hill in Winnipeg a year ago, and the recollection of his utterance prompted to applaud the happy phrasing of the well-understood truth. No words could better depict the condition of the Canadian West, even for a decade after the completion of the Canadian Pacific Railway. Without population the fertile soil and favorable climate could not redeem the West from the stigma of being a "wilderness." Such it was when the present Government came into power eleven years ago. While in the eastern provinces men tramped the streets seeking work, this great land lay untilled and unproductive, of little value to Canada and the world. The truth of the aphorism was recognized in the inauguration of the active immigration policy ten years ago, and the results have amply attested that the converse is also true and that the right kind of land people on the right kind of land produce exactly the opposite of the "wilderness." If today there are opportunities in Western Canada for men of all walks in life the opportunity has been created by the advent of the farmer, and in including the farmer to come, we have been opening the door also to the merchant, the professional man and the artisan. In measure of his own opportunity the business man, the professional man and the artisan of the West has a concrete illustration of the splendid results of the work of the immigration department.

It is of first consequence that Western Canada and to every man in Western Canada that the immigration work be kept up vigorously; and it should be also a cause for unanimous gratification that the prospects are that that work will be even more abundantly successful in the future than in the past. Ten years ago our immigration agents were appealing to men that were by no means willing to hear. The streets of immigration were flowing to other lands and it was our Herculean task to divert them into new channels and to a country of which little was known and that little was decidedly unfavorable. Much of the money and effort of our officials in the interim has been spent in breaking down prejudice, in persuading the doubtful, in popularizing a country that was decidedly unpopular. Persistent wins in immigration work are elsewhere and the eyes of those in the land who contemplate a change now turn so eagerly to our shores as they formerly turned elsewhere. They are coming by the scores of thousands, and every year a score of thousands more. A migration like a stream, once started, is not easily diverted, but tends to maintain its channel and increase in volume. The rush to Canada has now become a settled movement among the people of the earth; and it has every promise of a permanent and rapidly growing movement. We are getting the right kind of settlers and many of them; but we have room for many more.

ON THE SIDE.

Ontario doctors want a higher rate of pay. Presumably their patients want a lower rate of mortality.

Winnipeg is to have a large diocese. Judging from the politician returns the location should be strategic.

An exchange declares that "blue books" are written with intelligence. Maybe, but the chances are in favor of the Smith-Premier.

No need of a municipal gas well while His Worship is in trim. The quality is not up to much for illuminating purposes, but the supply appears ample.

A Black Hand letter has been sent to the Mayor of Toronto. It bore the word "Your life is in danger." He must have said something about the gas franchise, too.

"The Challenge of the Mountains" is the title of a new booklet issued by the C. P. R. From which we are left to infer that even the impassive hills are catching the baseball fever.

Lethbridge News: "In two months' time all the range cattle of South-western Alberta will be collected in the vicinity of Lethbridge." Lethbridge should be gratified that range cattle wear no bells.

Montreal Star: "The barbers' union reports prosperous conditions in the business, and all the members at work." In other words Montrealers are having their annual haircut.

The Toronto World shrewdly surmises that the Irish Council bill was intended to be an apple of discord "in the ranks of the Nationalist party," a kind of W. F. Maclean measure, as it were.

Toronto News—"All over the country the people should organize against level crossings." The people of Old apple to have organized to preserve a level crossing.

The Montreal Star says: "Such seasons as this show how exceedingly little we really know about weather conditions." Yes, and they reveal a whole lot of "conditions" that we would just as soon know exceedingly little about.

It is announced that the "Philippine" "want no Bureau." They are understood to have a traditional disregard for furniture of all kinds. An "adequate" tariff on "wood-manufactured" might to secure their undisturbed enjoyment of unfinished lodgings.

Dr. Chalmers, the medical officer of investigation, has completed an elaborate investigation of the recent high rate of mortality, and, as a result, declares emphatically that there is "death in kissing." Perhaps in Glasgow. The youth of that city should beware. But the focus were ever ready to have death in a good cause.

"At a Socialist meeting in Toronto" to function several Italian Socialists played La Marseillaise on mandolins. Corn beef and cabbage "may be eaten with a jeweled fork," but there is an apparent incongruity," says the Toronto News. Yes, and ice cream might be shovelled in with chopsticks.

 Vienna, June 4.—Dom. ITALY FAVORS BRITISH IDEA

But Will Remember Also Her Allies at the Hague Conference

Rome, June 4.—The situation of Italy at the second Hague conference and especially her attitude in connection with the limitation of armaments has a peculiar importance, because no other country is so directly affected by the struggle for supremacy which is going on among the leading European powers, as Germany and Austria expect the support of Italy because she is their ally under the triple alliance. England looks upon the ally of their view and their traditional friendship; France because of the commercial and economic interest binding them.

The people and government here have always followed with interest and approval every move tending to British, or at least neutral, international conflicts. The Italian Minister of Foreign Affairs, Sir Edward Grey, favoring a diminution of military expenses. When, a week later, Tittoni was recalled, at the outset by his previous service as ambassador at London, he had heard the statement of the British Premier, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, in favor of a reduction of armaments, and after the official announcement by Sir Edward Grey, favoring a diminution of military expenses. When, a week later, Tittoni was recalled, at the outset by his previous service as ambassador at London, he had heard the statement of the British Premier, Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, in favor of a reduction of armaments, and after the official announcement by Sir Edward Grey, favoring a diminution of military expenses.

The declaration awakened considerable apprehension at Berlin, where it was pointed out that Italy, though a member of the triple alliance, was pursuing the policy which was the avowed aim of the triple alliance, Germany and Austria, opposed.

He must have said something about the gas franchise, too.

dent of the conference of 1909 when his predecessor, Admiral Canaris, strongly opposed any direct or indirect participation of the Vatican, he might discuss the matter, but given that precedent any change would be impossible, indeed, it would produce a storm throughout the country. Besides, France this time objected to any interference by the Pope just as much as in 1909. With regard to the Russian program communicated to the powers, Italy is disposed to widen as much as possible the functions and competence of arbitration and further limit the question affecting the "honour and vital interests" so much discussed in 1909, which have to be excluded from arbitration.

INSTRUCT NEWS

LAC STE ANNE.
(Special correspondence of the Bulletin.)

Constable G. F. Tyler is slowly recovering from an attack of meningitis and hopes to get about as soon as quarantine regulations will permit. The weather in the settlement this week reminds one of a new corner where the soldier was like in "Bunny Alberta," and was replied: "Don't know, governor; only been here about eleven months," as it has been storming and cold with heavy rain showers and some hail.

The bells of the mission were silent today. Father Lasse, having returned to the Lohrville Lake, and no mass was held.

Homebreakers are coming in in large numbers and moving west, and several cattle are being prospecting in the Yellow Head Pass and Valley of the Fraser River.

Mr. J. M. Goodman and his wife and family have arrived here from the mouth of the McLeod River, where he was trading for the Hudson Bay company and trapping. He managed to secure one of the finest black foxes brought in for many years for the company, caught by Albert Rimmer, an expert Indian trapper last winter. Much news is told in the settlement at the said news brought down yesterday from Lohrville Lake, where Father Lasse is dangerous ill with typhoid fever. Dr. McMillan enters, but very little hope of his recovery. Father Lasse left immediately to attend the dying man. Only a few weeks ago he rode down and swam the river to secure assistance for his mother who was in a precarious condition, suffering pneumonia, but failed and is slowly recovering.

Our correspondent declares the following dispatch really took place: "A bridge being in some case on the drying room fire; the water is low. Bridge, turning to cook—'and use what will be for gas tonight; the water is frozen'."

VEGROVILLE.

(Special Correspondence to the Bulletin.)

Two Swedes that live up north were coming into town on Sunday last. One of them fell out of the wagon, and the wheel ran over his leg and broke it. The other drove on and minding his brother. The wounded man was picked up by another team and taken to Vegroville hospital, where he is getting along nicely.

John who has been hurt in the Russian army some time ago, became ill and was removed to the hospital, where he is accounted to be well.

A number of Vegroville went up to Laumont to see the men unloaded. They claim that more than one buffalo were loaded.

Want Taddy to Quit.
Baltimore, June 4.—William Jennings Bryan, during the course of an interview with a representative of the Associated Press, among other things, said: "The trust question, national question, tariff question, all illustrate the overwhelming influence of corporate wealth. Favoritism in government operates always in the interests of the few and against the masses. The remedy lies in the withdrawal of the privileges in the hands of the few upon privilege, and restriction of corporations in so far as the corporations have overstepped the law. The power which a monopoly gives can not safely be trusted to frail human beings. The temptation must be resisted."

Referring to his attitude relative to the licensing of so-called trusts, Mr. Bryan said: "It has been so criticized by some who spend more time objecting to remedies than they do to proposing remedies, but the license system which I advocated was endorsed in the Kansas City platform seven years ago, and it was endorsed by the Democrats in every state and territory except two after I had advocated that remedy for several years."

Continuing, Mr. Bryan said: "I assume that the present will adhere to the opinion which he expressed on the subject, and will not be a candidate again. It would be a reflection upon the success of his administration if, coming in by a narrow majority, he had so reduced the popularity of his party to make it impossible for any other Republican to be elected."

It would be strange if the president was strong enough to violate the anti-trust law precedent set by Washington, Jefferson, Madison, Monroe and Jackson, and yet was unable to develop a worthy Republican successor."

Harlan Must Answer.
Washington, June 4.—After a conference with President Roosevelt to-night Commissioner Lane of the Interstate Commerce Commission announced that detailed July 1st legal proceedings will be instituted to compel E. H. Harlan to answer certain questions propounded to him by members of the commission at the present hearing in New York City. The case of the Harlan lines was under investigation. Previous to the conference with the president, Commissioner Lane had conferred with Frank B. Kellogg, special counsel for the government in the Standard Oil prosecution, and it was arranged for Mr. Kellogg to represent the government in the case brought against Mr. Harlan.

A new company has been formed, known as the St. Albert Brick Company and have taken over the brickyard formerly owned and operated by Messrs. Hober and Perren. The new company have thoroughly overhauled the equipment, machinery and added considerable new plant. They intend to inaugurate a vigorous management of the concern and already have contracted to deliver 500,000 bricks in Edmonton this season.

Joseph Lebeau, of Chicago, an expert clayworker and brickmaker, of fifteen years' experience has been engaged to superintend the work. Eighteen acres of the best clay land have been secured. Two strata of clay are found here. The top stratum affording excellent material for the ordinary red brick, while the lower stratum is of a bluish color and is to be the best material available for the manufacture of white brick.

Thirty men will be employed during the summer and the yard operated by two shifts night and day. The capacity will be about 50,000 bricks a day.

The bricks will be shipped by the C. N. R. to Edmonton. Mr. F. L. O'Grady and Mr. Joseph Damsch of Edmonton are the principal capitalists interested in the new venture.

Fastness of Competition.

Paris, June 4.—Prince August von Arnheim at the annual meeting to-day of the directors of the Swiss Canal company of which he is president, predicted that the canal had nothing to fear from any projected competition. He said that the company held the monopoly of the canal, and any competitive canal would have to pass through the valley of the Jura, where the engineering obstacles were insurmountable. At the price of the canal, he said, the Swiss canal had nothing to fear from the proposed canal, as little American shipping passed through the former.

It was believed that every new trade route to the far east would be served to augment the traffic through the Swiss canal.

THE CASE AGAINST HAYWOOD

States Attorney Arraigns the Federation of Miners for Criminal Conspiracy.

Boise, Idaho, June 4.—Through Attorney James H. Hawley, the state of Idaho today made the opening statement against William H. Haywood, whom it is charged with the murder of former Governor Steunenberg. The testimony by which it hopes to indict him was then heard.

The opening statement was a sweeping arraignment of the leaders of the Federation of Miners, who were charged with plotting wholesale murder and hiring assassins and with a conspiracy of vengeance upon those who obstructed their way, to destroy opposition by terrorism, to control the whole political destinies of the dominion covered by their organization and to perpetrate their own powers within the organization. It charged a widespread conspiracy dating from the North Idaho disturbance fifteen years ago down to the murder of Steunenberg, and those victims by bullet and bomb numbered scores. Haywood declared that wherever in the mining sections of the coast states the federation had been in control, there had been left a trail of blood to mark its operations. Of the hired assassin, he cried: "To them murder became a trade and assassination a business of living."

Counted for the defense opened fire before the statement had proceeded ten minutes, and the repetition of objections from the defense caused four sharp exchanges.

They protested against the charge that the federation was guilty of "scores of murders" and the assertion that the conspiracy dated from fifteen years ago down to the murder of Steunenberg. Haywood declared that wherever in the mining sections of the coast states the federation had been in control, there had been left a trail of blood to mark its operations. Of the hired assassin, he cried: "To them murder became a trade and assassination a business of living."

Haywood charged the blowing up of the independence depot, causing the death of fourteen persons, at the instigation of Haywood. He said Orchard and Adams remained in the city and other crimes on the specific instigation of Haywood. Mr. Haywood concluded his address at the clock. Mr. Darlow announced that the defense would resume its opening statement until the state's case had been closed.

C. C. Wayne was the first witness called at 11:05. He was examined by Senator Borch. He was an employee of the murder of Governor Steunenberg. The defense declined to cross-examine Wayne, and the second witness, Dr. Gipe, who attended Steunenberg on the night of the murder was called. He was not cross-examined by the defense.

C. C. Caldwell, an attorney, was next called. Rice testified to the presence of Thomas Hogan, alias Orchard, at Caldwell prior to the Steunenberg murder. Mr. Richardson cross-examined Rice.

Right witnesses were examined before adjournment. Mr. Woodward passed out through the gate twenty minutes before the trial was blown up, told of the explosion and the shocking condition of the victim when he reached Mr. Steunenberg's call, ran to him.

John C. Rice, N. B. Halentine, residents of Caldwell, traced Orchard about the night, various times before and after the crime. Julian Steunenberg, son of the dead governor, told of the murder, then known as Richard, at the railroad station at Caldwell, twenty days before the crime, and telling him in an answer to his inquiry, that his father would be home on the following Friday. He said that he was on his way home with his father when two blocks behind his father when the explosion occurred.

The defense objected to practically all the day's testimony excepting that relating to the death of Steunenberg on the ground that it was immaterial and in no way connected with the undertaking of the prosecution to show the connection. It is expected that Orchard will be brought from the penitentiary to raise the stand tomorrow.

IMPERIAL BANK OF CANADA

The thirty-second annual general meeting of the Imperial Bank of Canada was held in pursuance of the terms of the charter at the banking house of the institution, Toronto, May 29, 1907. The chair was taken by the president, Mr. D. R. Wilkie, and the assistant general manager, Mr. E. Hay, was requested to act as secretary. It was moved by Mr. Alexander Nairn, seconded by Mr. Mark H. Lloyd, that Mr. Lyndhurst Ogden, Mr. R. H. Temple and Mr. W. Gibson Cossels be and are hereby appointed scrutineers. Carried. The assistant general manager, at the request of the chairman, read the report of the directors and the statement of affairs.

REPORT.
The directors have pleasure in submitting to the shareholders their thirty-second annual report and balance sheet of the affairs of the bank for the year which ended on 30th April, 1907. The net profits for the twelve months after making full provision for all bad and doubtful claims on hand, after deducting the share of the directors' contributions to the pension and guarantee funds and providing for general and other contingencies amount to $719,009.04, which has been applied as follows:

(a) Dividends have been paid at the rate of 10 per cent per annum for the first three-quarters of the year, and at the rate of 11 per cent per annum for the last quarter amounting in all to $453,217.25.
(b) Bank premises and furniture account has been credited with $116,201.47.
(c) Profit and loss account has been increased by $116,201.47. The premium amounting to $248,338.94 received on an equal amount of new capital stock has been transferred to rest account, which now amounts to $473,248.44.

There has been a satisfactory increase in the business of the bank in all departments.

Branches of the bank have been opened during the year at Hamilton, Ontario, and a sub-branch on Bank street, Ottawa, all in the Province of Ontario, and at Athabasca Landing, in the Province of Alberta. The branch at Trout Lake, B.C., has been closed.

Shortly after our last meeting the bank suffered and we were much grieved through the death of our much-respected colleague, Mr. William Hendrie, of Hamilton, who was elected a director on 19th May, 1899, and died on 27th June, 1906.

The vacancy on the board occasioned by Mr. Hendrie's death has been filled by the appointment of W. Hamilton Merritt, of St. Catharines, Ontario.

A by-law will be submitted for your approval authorizing an increase in the capital by the sum of $5,000,000, to be applied of all such amounts and at such times as the directors may determine. The rapid development economically and at the same time profitably supplied by the banks which have been in existence. It is intended to aloft the new shares from time to time as the business of the bank calls for additional capital for immediate allotment is in contemplation.

A further by-law will be submitted for your approval authorizing an additional contribution by the bank to the officers and employees' pension fund, with a view to placing that fund on a more substantial basis.

The head office and branches of the bank have all been carefully inspected during the year, and your directors have much pleasure in again bearing testimony to the neat, efficiency and faithfulness of the staff and the performance of their duties.

D. R. WILKIE, President.

I will guarantee it for TEN years and give you THREE years to pay for the "PEERLESS" INCUBATOR

Page 13 of my FREE Book tells why the air is always clean inside this one incubator--and why that matters to you

Most incubator-men talk loud about clean, healthy and little about Clean Air. I can afford to talk both, and more besides. Because:
The Peerless is the incubator that hatches with clean air--the incubator that has real ventilation. Now the quality of air an incubator-chicken gets before it's hatched is far more important than the quantity of food it gets after it hatches.

And many a poultry-for-profit venture has gone to smash by the carbon-dioxide ruin--bad incubator-air. Carbon-dioxide is a deadly gas every egg gives off as it hatches.

Open the ordinary incubators--do you sniff--that suffurous, musty choking smell is carbon-dioxide; and it is poison to animal life.

There is no smell in a Peerless--the poison is continually flushed out of the Peerless hatching chamber. Remember that for almost 500 hours the chick breathes what air seeps through the porous shell. If that air is poison loaded, as it is in badly-ventilated ordinary incubators; that chick is smothered, its vitality impaired, its vigor weakened.

It never can thrive as Peerless-hatched chicks, that breathe pure, clean air, do thrive.

Remember, too, that this is only one of fifteen plain reasons why the Peerless incubator not only hatches every chick that can be hatched, but gives those chicks the right start.

Every one of the fifteen reasons means the difference between money made and money lost in poultry raising.

VEGREVILLE WILL COME TO THE FAIR

Citizens of That Entertaining Town Would Like to Send Their Band Here.

Vegreville, the progressive and wide-awake town on the C. N. R., will be well represented at the Edmonton fair. Vegreville has a standard band of 25 pieces, which will come to Edmonton during Fair week if their presence is desired.

Vegreville lies on Main street, north of the tracks, have been selling very freely, some eighteen changes of hands last week three times within the same number of days. Considerable grading and street work is being done this year and the town is taking on a substantial appearance. It is apparent that the Main street as it is now will always be the main street of the town, and the center of the trade of Vegreville and the center of the town will be where it is now and is a fixture. Brick business will be carried on on both sides of the track. On the north side of the track are the stockyards, grain elevators, immigration hall, exhibition buildings, sand and gravel pits, Dominion Land office, Roman Catholic Church, the Russian Church, brickyard and very many substantial dwellings on the south side of the track are the two hotels, and good ones they are, large, clean, and they serve the very best of food. Vegreville is popular with the commercial traveler on account of its good hotels and its live and up-to-date merchants.

The C. N. R. Townsite Company has rounded the town out by putting on the market its lots on the north side of the track, opposite the station and they are selling rapidly. The town is beautifully situated, its streets and alleys are 50 and 20 feet wide. Its main street is 100 feet wide and the residential lots are 50 by 100 feet.

Probably Vegreville has the live-liest and largest Board of Trade in Central Alberta. It has a membership of over 50, in spite of the fact that the annual fee is $10. This is pretty good for a town not over a year and a half old and the board is doing splendid work for the town, just as the exhibition association is doing.

The Light That Most Nearly Resembles Sunlight

There's no artificial light used that can begin to compare with that given out by acetylene.

Acetylene more nearly resembles sunlight than any other known commercial illuminant.

And we all know that sunlight is the only perfect light.

Therefore, the nearer any artificial light can be made to resemble sunlight, the more nearly perfect it must be.

Sunlight is the standard by which we judge the true line of colors.

Any artificial light, which shows up colors differently from what they appear under sunlight, is unnatural.

Colors can be matched, and their true shades defined, quite as well under acetylene as under sunlight.

More than this, plants grow almost as well under the influence of acetylene as they do under sunlight.

No other known commercial illuminant can make these claims.

There are different grades of acetylene—depends upon the quality of the acetylene used.

THE RECORD ADMIRAL FURNACE

is fitted with the improved Record Triangular Grate—the most perfect furnace grate on the market. Of the four triangular grate bars, each bar is operated by the use of a handle applied to either of the two centre bars. To remove this handle after shaking is impossible until the grate bar has been returned to its original position, flat and in place, without any of the cogs sticking up. The result is that the bars are always flat under the fire and that it is impossible for lumps of coal to drop through and be wasted. The Record Triangular Grate can be entirely removed from without without lying on stomach or bothering with a light.
